A Commitment to Community Service

The dialogue of democracy defines the life of George Mitrovich, the president of The Denver Forum and The City Club of San Diego (he also chairs for the Boston Red Sox, The Great Fenway Park Writers Series). George is a champion of America, democracy and civic discourse, dedicated to the communication of strong ideals. He has a 40-year record of civic engagement, serving on public and charitable boards. His resume is too long and credits and accolades too many to list here but he is a man of grace and wit who brings these traits to the forums he chairs.

DMX -Direct and its staff feel fortunate to support The Denver Forum, The City Club of San Diego, and The Great Fenway Park Writers Series and their chairman, George Mitrovich. These Forums bring opinion Leaders bringing opinion leaders from the world of local, national and international politics, as well as business, sports and the media before members and guests.

I encourage you to support these Forums, by attending events and encouraging friends to do the same, but most of all I hope you become a member and sponsor of one of the best public forums in America.

Sincerely yours,
Jim Kennel

The Denver Forum www.thedenverforum.com

The Denver Forum is dedicated to the dialogue of democracy. That core belief was present at The Forum's inception and remains, 23 years later, a driving principle of this organization. In faithful observance of that ideal, The Forum has presented more than 600 programs in the public interest.

Denver Forum speakers represent different professions, philosophies, and political persuasions. An appropriate distinction, for it underscores The Forum's commitment to embrace neither political party nor partisan creed.

The Denver Forum holds to the Athenian's celebration of citizenship—a person engaged in civic life. If that describes the type of organization you're looking for, one that will challenge you intellectually, cause you to reflect on additional means by which you can help make Denver and our nation a better place, bring you into association with remarkable people, then The Denver Forum is the perfect organization for you.

The City Club of San Diego www.cityclubofsandiego.com

What The City Club of San Diego accomplishes, through its programs featuring nationally prominent speakers, is to get real people thinking about real issues; issues that will affect the future course of America.

If you believe the consideration of such issues is in the public interest, then The City Club of San Diego is an organization you should join. The City Club of San Diego was recently rated the third best public forum in America, having presented more than 850 programs in the public interest during the past 32 years.

The Great Fenway Park Writers Series www.fenwayparkwriters.org

The Great Fenway Park Writers Series celebrates the poetry of baseball and the power of the written word – one and inseparable. But baseball and literature are not indivisible from the society in which their special qualities are renowned. This program seeks to reflect as well the dynamic of the broader society – beyond ballparks and box scores.

The Boston Red Sox are committed to the proposition that writers and literature have a unique standing in American life and culture. The Great Fenway Park Writers Series honors that distinction.

IN CONGRESS, JULY 4, 1776.

The unanimous Declaration of the thirteen united States of America.

When in the Course of human Events, it becomes necessary for one People to dissolve the political Bands which have connected them with another, and to assume among the Powers of the earth, the separate and equal Station to which the Laws of Nature and of Nature's God entitle them, a solemn Account ought to be given to the Supreme Judge of the world for the Disposition of their former Affairs. We hold these Truths to be self-evident, that all Men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable Rights, that among these are Life, Liberty and the pursuit of Happiness. That to secure these rights, Governments are instituted among Men, deriving their just Powers from the Consent of the Governed, that whenever any Form of Government becomes destructive of these ends, it is the Right of the People to alter or to abolish it, and to institute new Government, laying its Foundation on such Principles, and organizing its Powers in such Form, as to them shall seem most likely to effect their Safety and Happiness. Prudence, indeed, dictates that Governments long established should not be changed for light and transient Causes; and accordingly all Reformations of ancient Government are borne with a peculiar Aversion and Reluctance. But when a long Train of Abuses and Misdeeds, pursuing invariably the same Object, evinces a Design to reduce them under absolute Tyranny, it is the Duty of those who are called upon to redress the Injuries, to throw off such Government, and to provide new Guards for their future Security. Such has been the Patient Sufferance of these Colonies; and such is now the necessity which constrains them to alter their former System of Government. The History of the present King of Great Britain is a History of repeated Injuries and Oppressions, not having in any one Instance shown Respect to the Rights of the Colonies. In proof thereof, we have recourse to the following Particulars. He has refused his Assent to Laws the most wholesome and necessary for the public Good. He has forbidden his Governors to pass Acts of the most urgent Nature, unless they shall first be referred to and approved by a Council of chivalrous Ministers, or Judges, or other pretended Representatives of the People. He has refused to assent to Acts of the most urgent Nature, unless they shall first be referred to and approved by a Council of chivalrous Ministers, or Judges, or other pretended Representatives of the People. He has refused to assent to Acts of the most urgent Nature, unless they shall first be referred to and approved by a Council of chivalrous Ministers, or Judges, or other pretended Representatives of the People.

About DMX-Direct www.dmx-direct.com

My first Forum event was 23-years ago and I've been back many times. The members of The Forum are a special group of people - intelligent, articulate, curious, involved, and concerned about their city, their state, and this land we love.

If you were to ask me why George does these things; conduct two public forums in two cities? I think there's only one answer - he has a profound and sincere belief in what he calls 'The dialogue of Democracy.' There's really no other answer. He sure as hell couldn't be doing it for the money.

Having served as a United States Senator and spoken at public forums across the country, I can assure you The Denver Forum is one of the best. It's good for Denver and for Colorado, but most of all it's darn good for America.

It's a strong reminder that civil discourse still matters so very much in our country.
